

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, EDITOR.

HOPKINSVILLE, MAY 25, 1880.

Horace Maynard has been appointed to succeed Mr. Key as Postmaster General.

Kellogg will stay in the Senate. The contest case has been decided in his favor.

One fact that speaks volumes for the wisdom of Samuel J. Tilden, is that he has never married.

Grant had a clear majority of 100 votes in the Illinois convention. A resolution was adopted declaring in favor of him.

Love is like going in debt in some respects. A man ought never to go out further than he can see his way out, should adverse fortune overtake him.

Gen. Longstreet has been appointed Minister to Turkey, to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Horace Maynard as Postmaster-General.

W. A. Wheeler, is evidently "struggling" under the effects of a guilty conscience. He has expressed himself as thoroughly satisfied with the office, and impatient for the time to expire.

An exchange tells of a heroic young lover who married his girl even after she had confessed to him that her teeth were false. The falsity of some of them is not confined to their teeth.

Mr. W. W. Irwin has become local editor of the Calloway News and judging from his salutatory he will be a valuable acquisition to that paper's staff. He writes in an easy flowing strain that ought to take with his readers.

A copy of the University Magazine, the organ of the Literary societies of Oxford University, is on our table, through the kindness of our young friend F. B. Richardson. It is a monthly pamphlet of thirty-two pages and is a very readable magazine.

Samuel Clark, a young farmer of De Kalb county, Alabama, committed suicide because of disappointment in love. Poor fellow! he was evidently a green one. If boys these days undertake to suicide every time a girl goes back on them they will have to have more lives than a cat.

So far as we know the Henderson Reporter is the only paper that has voted aye to the proposition of the Intelligence to secede from the Press Association and start a side show in this end of the State. Brethren remember the motto of our dear old Commonwealth, "United we stand, divided we fall."

The anti-third terms are in earnest in their opposition to Grant. A list of 2,000 in New York city has been sent to the Tribune, who swear by Caesar's ghost that they will not vote for Grant if he is nominated. This looks kinder like there was disaffection in some other party in New York besides the Democratic.

"Who struck Billy Patterson?" is a question that has long been agitating the public mind. As Mr. Patterson is dead, we will stop people from losing sleep and spending time and money trying to find out who struck him by acknowledging the thing and letting it be done with. We did it.

It matters not to us who the nominee of the Democratic party may be we will not have any row to cat. In our humble judgment it will be Mr. Tilden but if it be any other good man we will have the consciousness of having said nothing that the enemy can make capital of. We have done what little we could for our favorite without vilifying any other candidate, and not one word have we uttered that would make the nomination of any good man a source of embarrassment to us.

The Dixon Pioneer has succeeded in demolishing most of the Kentucky papers, and is lighting into the big daisies of other States. The Evansville Courier is the last world this female Alexander has conquered, as will be seen from the following:

The Courier humbly craves pardon of the fair editors of the Dixon (Ky.) Pioneer for quoting, with proper credit, from its columns an item referring to another lady. The heading, "She Gives 'Em All Away," was intended to introduce the item following it. Very few readers of the Pioneer, probably, knew that therefore could place no misconception upon the heading. As a friendly suggestion—is it possible that the editors of the Pioneer is just a little super-sensitive?

Neither "honest ignorance" nor "willful misrepresentation" prompted us to say that the Intelligence's proposition to secede from the State Press Association met with no second. None of our exchanges favored it, and of course we only spoke of those upon our list. In justice to the Intelligence we will say that we have since noticed that one, the Henderson Reporter, has endorsed the idea. The editors generally are not so selfish as to want the conventions in this end of the State, all the time. They also prefer to meet at the usual time instead of putting it off till fall. Our allusion last week was not made in any unkind spirit and we hope the editor of the Intelligence didn't get his "back up" about it.

To The Coal Banks.

Probably more than 25,000 bushels of coal of the finest quality which is sold in our market, are brought annually in wagons from the coal banks sixteen miles North of Hopkinsville, via the Madisonville road. The road is rough in many places, but in fair weather, when the ground is firm the teams which haul continually and regularly, leave town one evening, camp out over night and return to the city, easily the next day. A good team occasionally makes the round trip in a single day. These wagon deliveries are of the first importance to Hopkinsville and to the farmers for ten miles south of the city, in respect to cheap coal. Even on the present rough road, the coal can be delivered by wagons at twelve and a half cents per bushel, and persons having teams can haul their own coal, which they purchase at the mines for five and six cents, at a cost not exceeding ten or eleven cents. A good road would increase the wagon deliveries not less than 100,000 bushels for the city, and its vicinity, and operate as an effective check to railroad extortion in future. It would enable all the city teams to make the round trip in one day, and greatly lessen the breakages and accidents of the route, which now form a serious drawback to their traffic. We urge all persons directly interested in this important and growing trade between Hopkinsville and the coal mines to take into consideration at once the feasibility of constructing a first class country road from Hopkinsville to the inexhaustible coal fields which are within less than five hours' travel by wagon. Thousands of lumber, wood, tobacco, coal and huckster wagons, together with other country produce come into the city, annually over the Madisonville road, and there is hardly a farmer, or resident on the entire route, who is not deeply interested in improving the facilities of travel. The simple thorough drainage of the road would of itself be of immense benefit to the road. Let the water have a chance to escape and the heaviest rain-falls will leave a dry road bed in a few hours. At a few points in the flats the road could be macadamized, and these two improvements, the perfect ditching and drainage of the road, and the macadamizing of the low places, would afford a highway, better at times than a continuous turnpike and free of toll, to every traveler from the solitary tramp to the swearing teamster.

The Henderson News drew attention to an advertisement by a cut of an animal of the kind that our Saviors rode into Jerusalem, and the Reporter claims to have recognized it as "a wood cut miniature" of its contemporary's Junior Editor. Verily, Sam, this is the "most unkindest cut of all."

That will be a melancholy spectacle to see "when in the course of human events"—the Dixon Pioneer has vanquished all the Knights of the quill, and we behold her "Monarch of all she surveys," weeping that there are no more journalistic worlds to conquer.

Mendelssohn by imported Puckled made the fastest time on record at the late Lexington races. The time was two minutes and eight seconds. That horse seems to be as fast as some of the Hopkinsville boys.

Next to the nomination of Tilden we desire most to see Grant as the candidate of the Republican party. We want to see him taken down a few notches by just such a defeat as Uncle Sammy would give him.

We are not a prophet nor the son of a prophet but our prediction is that Washington will be the nominee of the Republican convention at Chicago.

The Conservative party of Virginia met last week and adopted a resolution to affiliate with the Democratic party and support its nominees.

A female is called a woman; many a poor married man has found that she is a woman enough. Say, you heepped husband, isn't it so?

Gen. Jno. B. Gordon, of Georgia has resigned his seat in the Senate, and Ex-Governor Jos. E. Brown has been appointed in his stead.

There may be happier moments in a boy's life than when he first sees his name in print, but we doubt it very much.

Call for Democratic Primary Election.

Pursuant to the action of the Democratic Executive Committee of the 2nd Judicial District it is hereby ordered that a primary election be held at the various precincts in this county on Saturday the 12th day of June 1880, between the hours of 7 o'clock in the morning and 6 o'clock in the evening for the purpose of ascertaining the strength of the various candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney of this District.

All voters heretofore, and those who are now acting in good faith with the Democratic party, and all Democrats who will be loyal voters at the ensuing August election, shall be entitled to vote at this primary election.

The following named persons are authorized to conduct said primary election and in the event any fail or refuse to act, the other officers named are empowered to appoint a suitable person or persons to fill the vacancy or vacancies.

RICKETTSVILLE.

The wheat crop is seriously damaged by the rust. Old farmers say there will not be a half crop.

Henry Hart, son of R. M. Hart has been very sick for the past week, but we are glad to say he is better now.

Died on the 12th inst. of pulmonary affection, Mrs. Ross Morgan. We deeply sympathize with the husband and family in this sad bereavement.

The school at the Brick Church is progressing finely under the supervision of Miss Emma Renshaw. We don't think the trustees could have found a more suitable person in the county.

Emile is going to school so we have been informed. We suppose he is studying the remedies for heart disease as he has one of the most critical cases of that kind you ever heard tell of.

Rickettsville has about blown out Mr. Woosley, the hotel and saloon proprietor has closed both and is selling out his stock of groceries, preparatory to going to Scottsburg, where he will go in business with J. W. Steele, his former partner.

Married by the Rev. J. U. Spurlin, at the residence of the bride's father in Rickettsville, Miss Lucy Davenport to Mr. Asdrubal Thacker of Hopkinsville.

The general health of this community is good, the Physicians have nothing to do.

Mormonism is booming in the neighborhood of Pleasant Hill church, a couple of young men came into the neighborhood a few days since, calling themselves preachers, claiming to have been sent out by the Mormons to preach the true gospel to Pleasant Hill and all other churches that would allow the privilege. We heard a talk from one of them last Sabbath and believe he as well as all other preachers of the gospel, has some good Scripture to uphold his doctrine. The gentlemen are traveling as it is said by the old on foot, and depending upon the kindness of the people for conveyance and board. As we have some conscientious scruples in regard to patronizing everything that is sent along or brought along we think this quite a hard time to depend upon the charity of the people.

There will be a meeting at the Ebenezer graveyard May 29th for the purpose of repairing the fence and cleaning up the burying ground, all that have relatives and friends buried there should endeavor to attend, and do their part of the work.

Mr. James Worley, a highly respected citizen of this community died last Sunday, April 27th. Mr. Worley was born in Bedford county, Va., where he lived until 1841; he then moved to Kentucky, and has since that time remained in Christian and adjoining counties.

There has been a very interesting Sabbath school organized at Pleasant Hill church. This is what the members and friends of Pleasant Hill should patronize and we hope the community generally both old and young will attend and support the school in the future.

HERE AND THERE.

The examinations at Bethel Female College begin to-day.

A new shed has been built over Ford & Myers' door.

Pete Owen is still on the truck for city Marshal and don't you forget it.

Spring chickens are in the market, though they are not larger than quails.

Ye editor's lot is a happy one while strawberries and cream are in season.

The Court of Claims, met Monday, of last week and remained in session two and a half days.

A young man named Malone spoke at Mozart Hall Saturday night, to a small audience.

Dr. J. B. Cottrell lectured at the Methodist church Friday night on Ingersollism.

Mr. Hiram's letter was "pled" just as the paper went to press, too late to be put in type again.

There was no preaching on Sunday school at the Baptist church Sunday in consequence of repairs going on.

Anderson & Cheaney have the fanciest thing in the way of an awning. It is as streaked and striped as a circus wagon.

Those who are invited will miss a rare treat if they fail to attend the grand dance and picnic at Fairbairn's cave next Saturday. It will be a grand affair.

Messrs. Jno. Young and R. M. Anderson have begun excavating preparatory to the erection of new business houses on Court street between Main and Virginia.

The ladies made a complete success of their strawberry festival last Tuesday night. They had an abundance of the finest berries and cleared between $50 and $60.

On the first page we give our readers a little love story, that unlike most of that kind is founded on facts. We omit the names of the parties as our life is not insured.

We learn that Mr. Thos. L. Wilson, of Trigg county, died at Hot Springs, of consumption, last week. He leaves a wife to whom he had been married only about six months.

One of the most enjoyable social entertainments of the season was given at Mr. J. K. Gant's last Friday night. A most delightful repast was spread, and every one enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent.

Our friend Butler Canister, of Empire, is a friend the South Kentuckian is proud of. He came in yesterday bringing six new names to his club at that office, for which he has our doubled and twisted thanks.

We accepted an invitation to attend the opening of Charles Metcalfe's ice cream saloon last Tuesday night. He has fitted it up in elegant style, and keeps the very best of cream, berries and cake. He has our thanks for the much appreciated treat.

Dr. Sears preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday night to a packed house. Many were turned away unable to get seats. The sermon was characterized by deep thought and erudition and was delivered in an able and eloquent manner.

Baylor, a fifteen year old son of Dr. L. B. Hickman, was severely hurt last Tuesday by attempting to jump on a moving train. He fell and struck his head, tearing off a portion of the scalp, and inflicting a painful if not a dangerous wound. At present he is doing as well as could be expected.

Either the railroad or city authorities should take steps to keep the innumerable crowd of small boys, both white and black, that assemble around the depot, from fooling around moving trains. Some of them are destined to lose their lives in jumping on trains that are passing. They should be set down upon.

There will be a grand picnic and bran-dance at the Chalybeate Springs, near Crofton, on Saturday June 5th, to which the public generally is invited, and the candidates are especially requested to attend and speak on the occasion. The managers promise to do all in their power to make it a success.

The Baptist church will be changed very much. The inside partition will be taken out and the vestibule thrown into the main room. The pulpit will be moved forward and rooms constructed on each side and a baptistry underneath. The elevated yard in front is being dug away and leveled with the street. Other improvements, will also be made and it will be two months or more before the work is done. When finished it will be the finest and handsomest church in the city.

We had the pleasure of taking tea with our much esteemed friend Mr. S. C. Mercer, one evening last week. Mr. Mercer has one of the prettiest places in the vicinity of the city, and raises the finest varieties of fruits of all kinds.

His strawberries, were as fine as we ever sampled, and the best we have seen this season. He plucked some from his vines last week that measured from four to five inches in circumference.

LATTONVILLE.

Last Saturday was quarterly meeting at Vaughan's Chapel, two sermons Saturday and two Sunday.

The principal topic of conversation in and around Lattonsville now is Dr. Vaughan, his wonders, his works and his miracles. He proposes to cause the blind to see, the deaf to hear, and the lame to walk. I hear he has treated six cases during his stay with his brother Mr. H. Vaughan. I conversed with him and found him a well read man. I tried to hear the rapping of the spirit, but I could not see the point, probably for the want of faith in the supernatural. You will have an opportunity Mr. Editor of judging for your self as he contemplates visiting your city soon.

Miss Bird Hubbard is visiting her aunt Mrs. Layton.

Mr. J. J. Ogburn of Salubria, paid us a short visit last Saturday, he is in the interest of V. M. Metcalfe of Hopkinsville. Mr. Metcalfe did well in securing the service of Mr. Ogburn, he is a first class salesman.

Mr. Bob Berry a very old citizen near this place is very sick and not expected to live long.

Wanderer need not have lifted his quill and ended his letter. I will not intrude friend Wanderer, for items are not so scarce in Lattonsville that I will have to go to Pondriver to gather them.

Payson's Opera Company.

Payson's English Opera Company rendered "Flotow's" popular and charming "Martha" to a good house Wednesday night. The company is one of the very best on the road and their singing was a treat to the lovers of music. The opera is a sentimental one abounding in love ditties and the plot is quite good and keeps the interest alive throughout. The opera was presented with fine and correct costumes and several difficult numbers of it usually omitted were restored and sung with fine effect. Miss Rachel Samuels did some fine singing. Her rendition of "The First Rose of Summer" was superb and was followed by a perfect storm of applause. Mr. E. G. Payson sustained the double part of "Pianetto and Lord Triton" and elicited frequent and well deserved applause. The other parts Lionel and Nancy were rendered by Mr. Harry Allen and Miss Adelaide Randall. It was a success, and so regarded by those who appreciated fine music, but those who went expecting to be amused rather than instructed were not satisfied.

What has become of D. C. G. Gone again to the "land of the blest," eh? Married, on the 19th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John Davenport. Mr. Asdrubal Thacker to Miss Lucy A. Davenport, by Rev. Wallace of Hopkinsville. Mr. Thacker has won a lovely companion and caused an aching void in the hearts of several we know. We understand the happy pair will make Hopkinsville their home, and we commend the bride for many good things to the people of the city. We had the pleasure of witnessing the nuptials, and congratulating Mr. Thacker, and we hope their lives—

May be peaceful as a summer day, and prosperity on their pathway smile; Friendship, love and truth hold sway, And ne'er cloud their lives beguile.

Mrs. Bidley, who has been sick with typhoid, at T. T. Owen's, we are glad to say is convalescing rapidly.

Pardon friend Roy; we spelled the name from hearing it called and meant no offense. We are glad to hear from both Roy and Zip, and would like to meet both, especially the omnipresent Zip.

Wheat prospects are not encouraging, still we hear of no rust on the stalk as yet. We have seen no corn above the clouds yet; all very backward. No army worms in the vicinity that we hear of. A fair setting of tobacco this season, some having set half and most all a third of the crop. Oats, grasses, etc. are looking very well for the season.

Politically we are rather quiet; but for president we will support the nominee; Wade Hampton choice. Pol. Pointeview and West we believe are favorites among the county candidates.

We are pleased to hear the honorable county court made an appropriation to grade and metal the Boyd hill, that was so miry and impassable for two or three months this year.

In conclusion let us say, that we understand some one was through this section, agent for a certain paper, and was ridiculing the correspondence of the Kentuckian, and the way it was conducted, etc. Let that be as it may the facts speak for themselves as we hardly ever see a copy of his paper, and almost every family takes the Kentuckian, and say it is the best county paper now they ever saw. Long may it wave in triumph and prosperity.

Many cherries are ripening.

Prof. Fitzhugh's school closed last Friday.

The Church Hill company attended the exhibition at Nashville last week.

Mr. Henry Barl returned to the Purchase last Friday.

Mr. Hanbury has leased the Peoples Farm for five years at $1,200 per year. Mr. Hanbury is a good farmer and will doubtless make money on the farm.

Mr. W. E. Alcock is the happy man this time. It is a girl and weighs thirteen pounds.

Thanks, "Tyro," for the invitation and would be pleased to give you Believians the correct time when ever you get a little off. By the way "Tyro," speaking of snakes, the one you mentioned as not having been found yet, was killed near this place three weeks ago and had thirty-one rattles.

A great many tobacco plants were set out last Friday. A large crop will doubtless be planted out if the farmers are favored with another season.

The ladies' hat this season is made of straw, kicked in on the front, jammed in on the back, shored in on each side and knocked in on the top. Then the rim is jammed up all around to make the whole effect harmonious. The desired condition can be obtained by taking one of last year's hats and letting a freight train, filled with Tilden boys, run over it.

A few weeks ago our town was nearly destroyed by fire, we are pleased to know that it will soon be built again. Several houses are now being erected.

Wils West (col.) got a divorce from his slave time wife two months ago married a little girl the next day, and on yesterday they parted for good.

SHORTFELLOW.

Health good.

Wheat badly damaged by the rust. Farmers are patiently waiting for rain so as to set their tobacco crop.

There is a lively interest taken in the Sabbath school here and a picnic is talked of some time in the near future.

SINKING FORK.

Now for a season of sickness among those who set tobacco in the rain all day. All such exposure generally brings many aches and pains as a reward.

Miss Rice of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting Miss Mollie McCarroll. She is a beautiful and elegant lady, and we hope some of our boys may prevail on her to make her home among us.

Mrs. John Pyle has returned from a visit among relatives in north Christian.
